

International Choir Festival of Milan

From May 16 to 20, 2024

Come and explore the magnificent city of Milan and its world-famous cathedral.

The days are devoted to sightseeing, the evenings to concerts.

All the concerts are organised and shared with regional Italian choirs, as well as other participating international choirs.

They are always a privileged moment of sharing and friendship with the choir members and, of course, with the audience.

Milan guided tour

20km/ 35 minutes

A visit to Milan begins in Piazza del Duomo. Pinnacles, spires and thousands of statues (3,400) adorn this stone lacework, making the Duomo of Milan a masterpiece of flamboyant Gothic architecture.

Then, of course, there's the Galleria Vittorio Emmanuel. This links the Duomo to the La Scala theatre. This nineteenth-century gallery is packed with colourful shops and cafés.

At the end of the Galleria Vittorio Emmanuel you arrive at the Scala Theatre, which behind its less than lavish façade hides the world-famous temple of opera, where the great Italian opera composers have reigned: Rossini, Bellini and Verdi.

Also worth a visit is the Castello di Sforzesco, a medieval fortress transformed into a palace by the Sforza dynasty in 1450, and now a public museum housing, among other things, the Pieta Rondanini, Michelangelo Buonarroti's unfinished masterpiece.

Saturday May 18, 2024 : Lac de CômeBreakfast*Departure for Lake Como*Visit and free lunch*Boat trip on the lake (extra charge)60km/ 1h*

Lake Como is a born seducer. Its villas with lush gardens and sapphire-blue waters, in which the peaks of the Alps are reflected, have made it a world-famous holiday destination.

And rightly so, for Italy's 3rd largest lake, stretching from Switzerland to the Milanese plain, is both a natural jewel and a delight for the senses. It has attracted artists and world leaders, from Stendhal and George Clooney to Onassis, Kennedy and Ava Gardner.

But Lake Como is more than just a gilded haven for the jet set. It is in its small fishing villages, mountain hiking trails, Romanesque abbeys and local cuisine that this extraordinary site reveals all its character, beyond its watercolour splendour.

"There's no point in looking so far for happiness, it's right there in front of my eyes!" exclaimed the hero of La Chartreuse de Parme, taking refuge in his native village of Grianta, on the shores of the lake. He was right: Lake Como is an irresistible promise of happiness.
